Jimmy Kozlowski has a regular gig playing Paul McCartney in the Beatles tribute band, Help! The band is part of a cottage industry grounded in mimicry, with each group striving to be the ultimate Fake Fab Four. And none strives harder than Help! thanks to its John Lennon and leader, Gene Klein. Gene's just gotten his Medicare card and spends much of his time caring for his ailing mother, but he hasn't lost a step on guitar or vocals. He is determined to take Help! to the top, the goal being to perform in Liverpool one day. Though the notion of the UK clamoring for a group of Long Islanders with fake British accents seems far-fetched, Gene has a plan.

Jimmy, unlike his boss, has limited bandwidth for high-quality Beatle wigs or bespoke Nehru jackets. He works a straight job, entertains at a nursing home, and yearns to connect with the daughter he's never met. He also wants a shot at recording and performing his own original material, even if it means "burying Paul" in the process.

I Buried Paul is a love letter to the power of music, a humorous yet moving exploration of the sacrifices its disciples are willing to make in service to its magic.
